BUCCANEERS WIN DOUBLEHEADER

The Shelton State Buccaneers won a doubleheader from Brewer State Junior College last week as part of their fall practice schedule, according to Buccaneer coach Steve King. The women's softball team will play Brewer State again this week in Fayette at 3 p.m. at the college. The score of the doubleheader was 6-5 the first game and 18-6 the second.

Plans are now underway to form a booster club for the Buccaneers composed of faculty, staff, students, and community supporters who are interested in the program. If you are interested in being a Buccaneer booster, contact Steve King.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor a Basic Pump Operator School on October 25-27 in Tuscaloosa. This is the first of two pump apparatus operator schools and is designed for the fire fighter with little or no previous experience as a pump operator. Practical experience will be stressed, according to Bill Smith, chief of training for the State Fire College.

IT PAYS TO BE A NICE GUY....so says the Fire College personnel. For a long time, the Fire College staff have opened cars locked mistakenly by Albertson's customers. As a special thank you, Albertsons sent a lovely fruit basket to the Fire College this week.

TECHNICAL TALK

Students from the cosmetology class at the Technical Division will color code members of the secretarial organization for the City Board of Education at their meeting on Tuesday, October 18. This is the popular new skill of determining what colors a women should wear. Under the leadership of Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Sexton the students will determine if the women are "fall, winter, spring, or summer" colors.
